

SOCIAL NOTES

THE University Ball, which is considered the society event of the season, proved one of the grandest successes of the many events given by the hospitable club. Everything went as smoothly as the proverbial marriage bell, and fair women passed before the patronesses who received at the club, and included Mrs. Walter Froom, Mrs. Sidney Ballou—whose husband is president of the club—Mrs. A. G. Gentry, Mrs. W. H. Babbitt and Mrs. Clarence Cooke. They were all beautifully dressed and carried bouquets of violets. The decorative scheme was carried out with much artistic effect. Wisteria, suspended from the latticed ceiling in the ballroom, and lanais, exquisitely carried out the idea of a Japanese garden. On one of the lanais of the Hawaiian hotel, which was given up for the occasion, a ceiling of greens, daintily hanging, attracted the eye. From the dressing rooms, across the bridge connecting the club with the hotel, a canopy was spread, protecting everybody from the rain, which fell in the early part of the evening. The palm-line bower led to the ball room, where waiters and waitresses attracted the dancers. The giant palms which adorned the lanais, the bamboo screens for quiet talks, the flags, the lights becomingly arranged, all spoke eloquently of the time and thought bestowed upon making the ball a success. The Waikiki lani served as a lounging room, and lemonade and punch were served throughout the evening. The Hawaiian band and Ernest Kani's orchestra alternated, and they were received by palms and bamboo shoots. Supper was served at midnight and the dancing continued until 3 o'clock. Mr. Harry Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Atong, Mrs. Whiting, Mr. W. A. Love and Mrs. Clarence Cooke arranged the decorations. There were so many handsome toilettes that it is almost impossible to describe them, and so many strangers that it was quite like another atmosphere. The list of guests was as follows:

The guests of the Club were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Atong, Mr. and Mrs. L. Abrams, Dr. D. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Atong, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arendt, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wadman, Mrs. Gertrude Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Watson.

Miss Kate Young, Mrs. J. F. Youngman.

One of the handsomest dinners given for a long time was the one Miss Nancy Winston at the Alexander Young hotel in the large dining room kept for private parties. It was in honor of her cousins, Mrs. Newall and the Misses Winston. The long oval table converted into a huge bed of ferns and greens, upon which rested pink and white asters, was greatly admired. Tall silver candelsticks with pink shades surrounded it, and the place cards depicting scenes of yesteryear were pretty souvenirs.

Miss Winston wore a creation of Worth, a black and white lace over white satin, embellished with narrow rows of black velvet. She looked charming. Mrs. Deering's dress was of lace, the whole effect being decidedly French. Mrs. Humphreys wore a lovely frock of real Irish lace over white satin, and Mrs. Newall in white was much admired. The Misses Winston, in their dainty frocks, looked fresh and girlish. The guests went to the ball and they included the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Newall, the Misses Winston, Dr. and Mrs. Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. W. Case Deering, Prince and Princess D. Kawanakoa, the princess looking particularly beautiful; Paymaster and Mrs. Brooke, the latter in a pretty pink frock; Dr. and Mrs. Murray; Mrs. Cox, of Salem, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Governor Clegg, Mr. Leslie Scott, Mr. Edward Dunsenberger, Mr. David Anderson, Mr. Pillsbury, Dr. Hobson, Dr. Irwin of Hilo, Mr. Clifford Kimball.

The ball to be given by the Shriners is commencing to assume large proportions. The committee in charge is holding frequent meetings and the members of the order, individually, are showing much interest in the success of the affair. Already somewhere in the neighborhood of eight hundred invitations have been applied for. The invitations will be out by the 12th of the month. The ball will take place at the Moana Hotel on the evening of the 21st, and as arrangements will be made for late cars to all parts of town it is expected that the festivities will continue until the early morning hours.

Mr. and Mrs. McCandless of Waikiki gave a beautiful dinner last Friday in honor of Bishop Moore, who has been entertained so much since his arrival here. Pink carnations decorated the table. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Dillingham, Rev. and Mrs. Wadman, Miss Wadman, Miss McCandless and Mr. Pitkin.

Mrs. Selma Kinney was the hostess of a small tea at her artistic bungalow on Anapuni street Tuesday. Among the guests were Mrs. L. L. McCandless, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. William E. Taylor, Miss Carter, Miss Nina Adams, Miss Maud Kinney favored the guests with music.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., gave an informal dinner for Miss Carmen Chow, a guest of the Hedemann's, on Tuesday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Case-Deering, and Mr. Richard Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Ranney Scott gave a pretty dinner at the Alexander Young hotel last evening. Their dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brinkerhoff, Miss Marion Scott and Mr. Richard Wright.

Mr. Walter Dillingham and Mr. Harold Dillingham sailed in the Korea. Mr. Harold Dillingham will be married to Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith, and Mr. Walter Dillingham is to be best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Goslinaky are domiciled at the Young hotel. The former is a brother of Mrs. M. Phillips. They are on their wedding tour.

Mr. Clifford Kimball expects to go East in two months and will join his wife, who has been visiting his relatives in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Reid arrived in the Honolulu and are guests of the Sidney Ballou.

Among those departing in the Korea were Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and Monsieur da Silva.

Mrs. C. Hedemann has been quite seriously ill for a week. She is improving rapidly.

Monsieur da Silva departed in the Korea. He made many friends during his visit here.

This morning Mrs. Cockett gave an interesting address on "The Greek Classics."

Letters From Schools

Wahee, Maui, Jan. 24, 1908.
W. R. Farrington, Esq., Editor Evening Bulletin, Honolulu.
T. H.

Dear Sir:—I am going to tell you that we have planted some vegetables. I am taking care of my little garden. I will name you the seeds: collard, beets, lettuce, and beans.

I am in the fifth grade. We had a terrible wind here. And I always wet my garden, morning and afternoon.

Yours truly,
ANDREW KAHUHE.

Wahee, Maui, Jan. 24, 1908.
W. R. Farrington, Esq., Editor Evening Bulletin, Honolulu.
T. H.

Dear Sir:—We have a fine school at Wahee. Our school ground is very fine and level. And the boys pick very hard and carry dirt in the wheelbarrow. The boys have a fine garden started, and they have planted some vegetables in their garden, beans, sweet potatoes, watermelons, radishes, beets, cabbages, tomatoes, mustard, onions, sweet corn, and lettuce; that is what I remember that the boys planted. I hope that Wahee school will take the prize.

We have a terrible hard wind at Wahee. And we are in the fifth grade.

Yours truly,
WILLIE WHITFORD.

Wahee, Maui, Jan. 24, 1908.
W. R. Farrington, Esq., Editor Evening Bulletin, Honolulu.
T. H.

Dear Sir:—We are working in the ground, digging dirt and shoveling, to fill up the two patches. And some of our boys carry the dirt in wheelbarrows. Some of our boys have worked their gardens beautifully. Their cabbages are growing very nice and some other things beside cabbages. Our two patches are nearly filled with dirt. We are having a terrible wind today; it is strong and cold, too. I am in the fifth grade now. And we are reading in the history. We are getting along nicely now. The girls sew their work in school. Handkerchiefs, pictures, frames and something else besides handkerchiefs and picture frames. I hope the Wahee school will take the prize.

I remain, yours truly,
IVAN KAHUHE, Fifth Grade.

Wahee, Maui, Jan. 24, 1908.
W. R. Farrington, Esq., Editor Evening Bulletin, Honolulu.
T. H.

Dear Sir:—We have a very terrible wind in Wahee. We are trying to keep our town clean. And our school yard is getting very nice. We have a great big school. Our school is very near to the mountains. We have three days to work in a week. We are learning to weave. We have no janitor in our school. We have three grades in our room. I am in the fifth grade. We have pictures around the walls of our school. And we have a map roller. The boys are getting on well with the gardens. They have a great big garden.

Yours truly,
EMILY KEAPO.

Wahee School, Wahee, Maui, Jan. 24, 1908.
W. R. Farrington, Esq., Editor Evening Bulletin, Honolulu.
T. H.

Dear Sir:—I am going to let you know about our school. Our school is coming up fine. Our weaving work is very pretty and the boys' garden is coming up very fine. They water it every day. They have lots of vegetables planted already. Our school ground is very nice; the grass is planted all over it. And the boys take the lawn-mower and pass it all over the yard. We have fine palm trees planted, too. When we clean our school we clean it very nicely. And we have no monitor for our cleaning. I am in the sixth grade. I think this all that I have to relate to you.

Yours respectfully,
ADELAIDE SYLVA.

Kaahuhu School, Hamakua, Hawaii, Jan. 23, 1908.
W. R. Farrington, Esq., Editor Evening Bulletin, Honolulu, T. H.

Dear Sir:—I am one of the pupils in the Kaahuhu School. I am going to tell you about our school. From Monday till Friday morning we have Physiology, Nature Study, Reading Lessons, and Lessons on Correct Forms, Weather Chart; but Friday afternoon we have house cleaning, sewing and weaving and gardening. Sometimes all the big girls stay in the school room to wash the desks and put the books and slates in order.

Our school ground is level and fine. Last year in April all the children planted potatoes, cabbages, onions, chili pepper, etc. Of course some of the vegetables have been eaten.

Our trees which we planted on Arbor Day 1905 are growing nicely. Oak trees, Pine trees, Oleander trees, and many other trees are growing all around our school yard.

From our garden we send you a box of potatoes, papaya and waiagi. A Happy New Year aloha from the Kaahuhu school children to you.

LEOY KAMALE, A Fourth Grade Pupil.

Kaahuhu School, Hamakua, Hawaii, Jan. 20, 1908.
W. R. Farrington, Esq., Editor Evening Bulletin, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Dear Sir:—As I read in the Evening Bulletin about the contest and the prize you offer to the winners of the public schools, I thought I would join in too.

I am a new pupil of the Kaahuhu School. There are many children attending this school. My teacher's name is Miss Hattie Saffery.

Our school house has been painted.

Dear Sir:—I am writing you this letter to tell what we boys do in our school and our yard, and also with our new tools.

Some little boys pull weeds and water the plants.

Some of the boys work in the yard and fill the two patches. And some boys clean the new tools under the school house.

Other work is done very well. The vegetables are all growing very well now, but the wind is very bad and almost kills our plants. We are trying hard to do right. We have County government and I am one of the police now. I am in the fifth grade. I hope our school will get the prize.

I remain, yours respectfully,
HENRY KAONOHI.

Dear Sir:—I will tell you something about the yard. We worked on our yard very hard and strong. We leveled up the holes in the grounds and threw the stones away. We pulled the weeds up and run the lawnmower on. We planted grass in our yard and watered it all day. When the grass grows strong enough, we run the lawnmower over it.

Yours respectfully,
